

Penny Spyropoulou

Penny 's practice includes Information Technology and Data Protection law, Civil Law (both consulting and litigation) and Family law.

She has considerable experience in the field of data privacy and the GDPR, having completed her training with the French Data Protection Authority (CNIL), as well as having collaborated with the law firm Srouji Avocats in Paris, focusing on GDPR matters.

She has served as legal adviser of "GFOSS – Open Technologies Alliance Non-Profit Organization".

Penny is a graduate of the University of Athens, Faculty of Political Science and Public Administration and has obtained a Licence en droit from the Université Sorbonne Paris Nord (2015) and a Master's degree in Information and New Technologies Law from the Université Paris 2 Panthéon-Assas (2016).

She was admitted to the Athens Bar Association in 2018.

She is fluent in Greek, English and French.